

Carmen-Mihaela Băiceanu Vărășteanu graduated from Ovidius University of Constanta, Faculty of Psychology and Educational Sciences specializing in psychology, Master Degree in School Counselling, and Ph.D. in Psychology.

She started her activity at the Ovidius University of Constanța, Teacher Training Department . Her university career was defined by a constant concern for professional development materialized in courses, seminars, internships, scientific papers and publications aimed at current issues of Educational Psychology, Social Psychology, Health Psychology and School and vocational counseling, fields in which were concentrated theoretical, experimental-investigative and practical-applied efforts.